SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of: five (5) years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (Check, if applicable.)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: RAHAIN ANTIONE DERIGGS, II
CASE NUMBER: 1:22-CR-00303-2

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. DEFENDANT: RAHAIN ANTIONE DERIGGS, II
CASE NUMBER: 1:22-CR-00303-2

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall abide by the mandatory and standard conditions of supervised release.
2. The defendant shall cooperatively participate in a mental health evaluation and treatment program, which may include inpatient treatment, and pay for treatment services, as directed by the probation officer.
3. The defendant shall submit his person, residence, office, vehicle, or any property under his control to a warrantless search. Such search shall be conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any residents that the premises may be subject to searches.

RAHAIN ANTOINE DERIGGS, II	:

PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

WHEREAS, on September 26, 2022, the defendant, RAHAIN ANTOINE DERIGGS, II, was charged in an Indictment in Count One with a violation of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 846 and 841(b)(1)(A), conspiracy to distribute 5 kilograms or more of cocaine hydrochloride; in Count Two with a violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(B), distribution of 500 grams or more of cocaine hydrochloride; and in Count Three with a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 924(c)(1)(A)(i), possession of firearms in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime.

AND WHEREAS, the defendant, RAHAIN ANTOINE DERIGGS, II, entered into a plea agreement on March 6, 2023, whereby the defendant agreed to plead guilty to Count One of the Indictment, and to forfeiture of all right, title and interest in and to any property constituting, or derived from, proceeds obtained, directly or indirectly from, or used, or intended to be used to commit, or to facilitate the commission of the offense charged in Count One to which the defendant pleaded guilty, including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. $18,233 in United States Currency.

AND WHEREAS, the Court finds that the defendant's interest in and to the property identified above and as described in the forfeiture allegation in the Indictment and in the Plea Agreement is subject to forfeiture, and that the requisite nexus exists between the property to be forfeited and the offense to which the defendant has pled guilty.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. As a result of the guilty plea to Count One of the Indictment, for which the Government sought forfeiture pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853, and Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c), and based on the Plea Agreement, and other matters of record in this case, defendant shall forfeit to the United States the following items of property:

a. $18,233 in United States Currency.

2. Upon entry of this Order, the United States Attorney General (or a designee) is authorized to conduct any discovery proper in identifying, locating, or disposing of the property subject to forfeiture, in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3).

3. Upon entry of this Order, the United States Attorney General (or a designee) is authorized to commence any applicable proceeding to comply with statutes governing third party rights, including giving notice of this Order.

4. The United States shall publish notice of the order and its intent to dispose of the property in such a manner as the United States Attorney General (or a designee) may direct. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the subject property.

5. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(4), this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture shall become final as to the defendant at the time of sentencing and shall be made part of the sentence and included in the judgment.

6. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order, and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).

This, the 15th day of August 2023.
